

JOIN ASIA'S LARGEST TRANSPORT FORUM

When: 6-8 November 2012

Where: ADB Headquarters, Manila, Philippines

Registration is FREE and STILL OPEN

Transport experts, policy makers, and civil society groups will share and learn best practices and technologies on urban transport, road safety and health, green freight and transport technologies, climate change resilience, road asset management, and financing mechanisms.

Highlights and special events include:

- Car-free Sunday at F. Ortigas, Jr. Avenue: revitalizing community spirit through fitness, games and sports
- Mayors' Forum: local leaders from all over Asia on how they are supporting and promoting sustainable urban transport in their cities
- Traffic Court: who is guilty for traffic congestion, poor air quality, and deteriorating quality of life in Asia's cities?
- Beyond Rio+20: multilateral development banks on how they are fulfilling their commitment for sustainable transport
- Visions for cross-border transport in 2050: enhancing regional cooperation and integration

Click on the links below for more information about ADB's Transport Forum 2012

Register

Program

Training Courses

Partnership Packages

For more details, please contact ADB's Transport Forum 2012 Secretariat: transportforum@adb.org